SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

Five (5) years at each of Counts 1 and 2, to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: NATHAN RICHARD KOSMATINE
CASE NUMBER: 1:17cr00014

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. ### ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. Defendant shall not use or possess controlled substances except as prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner for a legitimate medical purpose;
2. Defendant shall participate in a program of testing and, if necessary, treatment for substance abuse as directed by the probation officer, until defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. Defendant shall submit to one drug urinalysis within 15 days of being placed on supervision and at least two periodic tests thereafter. Defendant shall contribute to the cost of services for any treatment in an amount determined to be reasonable by the probation officer, but not to exceed the actual cost of such treatment;
3. Defendant shall not purchase, possess and/or use any substance(s) designed to simulate or alter in any way his own urine specimen. Defendant likewise shall not purchase, possess and/or use any device(s) designed to submit a urine specimen from another individual;
4. D Defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program and/or a sex offender treatment program as approved and directed by his probation officer. Defendant shall abide by all program rules, requirements and conditions of the sex offender treatment program, including submission to polygraph testing to determine if he is in compliance with the conditions of release. The probation office is authorized to release the defendant's presentence report to the treatment provided if so requested;
5. With the exception of brief, unanticipated, and incidental contacts, defendant shall not associate with children under the age of 18 except for family members or children in the presence of an adult who has been approved by the probation officer;
6. Defendant shall not possess or access with the intent to view any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games, depicting and/or describing child pornography as defined at Title 18, United States Code, Section 2256(8);
7. In accordance with Title 18, United States Code, Sections 3563(a)(8), 3583(d) and 4042(c)(4), and the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) at Title 42, United States Code, Section 16901, defendant shall report the address at which he will reside and any subsequent change of address to the probation officer responsible for his supervision. Further, defendant shall register as a convicted sex offender in any state in which he resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student;
8. Defendant is permitted to possess and/or use a computer and is allowed access to the internet. However, defendant is not permitted to use a computer, or other electronic devices, including a cell phone, to access child pornography or to communicate with any individual or group for the purpose of promoting sexual relations with children. Defendant shall consent to the installation of any hardware/software to monitor any computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices used by defendant to confirm defendant's compliance with this condition. Defendant shall consent to periodic inspection of any such installed hardware/software to insure it is functioning properly. Defendant shall pay the monitoring costs as directed by the probation/pretrial services officer. Furthermore, defendant shall consent to periodic unannounced examinations by the probation officer of any computers, cell phones, or other electronic communication or data storage devices to which defendant has access, to confirm defendant's compliance with this condition. Additionally, defendant shall consent to the seizure and removal of hardware and data storage media for further analysis by the probation officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of a violation of the conditions of supervision or unlawful conduct by defendant. Defendant's failure to submit to the monitoring and/or search of computers and other electronic communication or data storage devices used by defendant may be grounds for revocation;
